

Living & Working in Mexico

A complete course offering training to employees on how to interact with cultural experiences as you integrate into your new job.

In the case that you are going to be relocating employees to Mexico, whether it be short-term or long-term, this complete program will give you all the benefits that you need to succeed in your transition

This highly effective course will help the expat and their family adjust and manage the beginning obstacles in order to understand the differences that your family may encounter as you arrive in Mexico.

This workshop will work for:

- Future expats and their families
- People that desire to work in Mexico
- People that are looking to establish occupational relations in Mexico

This course can be taken solely by the expat or with his/her family, as the entire family is often directly affected by the changes as well, which can play a role in the effectiveness of the employees success.

In the case that the employer is relocating you to Mexico throughout a medium to long period of time, this basic guide will help you adjust comfortably to your time in Mexico.

This program offers

- Living & Working in Mexico- Five 45 minute courses about the first steps required as you enter a new country and the cross cultural differences and the cross cultural differences.
- Multicultural Coaching -Five 45 minute courses designed to assist you with any questions you may have regarding your cross-cultural experience.

Cost

$850

Programs

- General information
- History and current events
- Mexican society
- Safety
- Important paperwork
- First steps in Mexico *
- Etiquette
- Knowing Mexico
- Embassy
- Occupational Interaction in Mexico

*More information on this program located in the "First Steps in Mexico guide"

 More information on this program located in the "Occupational Interactions in Mexico"

For further information, contact:

natalia@sdccsolutions.com

Tel. 1-615-9344446

